ONLY A CANTER FOR NEALON

SON OF SAIN WINS TWIN CITY HANDI-CAP IN FAST TIME.

Lawrence P. Daley, an Added Starter, Wins Autumn Maiden Stakes-Sanguine Is Disqualified-Farcical Steeplechase.

New York, September 2.-The rainstorm this morning had no apparent effect on the attendance at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon. There were at least 40,000 persons at the course. The card, with the rich Twin City Handicap as the stellar attraction and the Autumn Maiden Stakes as a secondary feature, was attractive enough to cause the cele brants of the great labor holiday to risk a drenchto see the sport.

While the going was sloppy, there was an under-lying firmness that permitted fast time, as was evidenced in the two stake races

The Twin City Handicap had only two withdrawals, Superman and Borghesi. Of the nine that went to the post Salvidere was the public choice, but after the barrier was released there was never any question about the winner. Nealon quickly established a safe lead, held it all the way and was never fully extended. He displayed his magnificent Suburban form and won by a margin of eight lengths from Dandelion, with Beacon Light third and Salvidere fourth. Salvidere was shuffle back about midway of the journey of a mile and a and at the end appeared as if he The time of the race was 2:05\(\frac{3}{5} \), only one slower than the track record. William slower than the track record. Dubois, the owner of Nealon, is said to have backed son of Sain heavily. The public, however, did not believe that he could concede so much weight to the others and win.

The Autumn Maiden Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five-eighths of a mile, had a most unsatisfactory result. Fancy, Dennis Stafford, St. Ilario, Aimee C., Countermand and Celt, six of the fifteen carded Saturday, were withdrawn, and Lawrence P. Daley Jim Gaffney, Alfred Noble, Restigouche and Smiley Corbett were added. This caused much confusion among those who were speculatively inclined. They finally settled on Jim Gaffney as their favorite, backing him from 2 to 1 to 7 to 5. Lawrence P. Daley, backed only by the few present who saw him leave the ranks of the maidens at Saratoga Thursday, displayed a decided fancy for soft going, ran close up in the early stages, gradu wore down Jim Gaffney, which had set a tremendous pace through the persistent oncoming of Desirous, and won by a head at the lucrative odds of 30 to 1. Alfred Noble and Restigouche, two more of the added starters, finished fourth and fifth respectively. There was loud complaint against added starter evil.

The steeplechase was a farce. Oliver Cromwell and Coal Black Lady were withdrawn, leaving only Paprika, Judge White and Homoselle to start. Paprika was the favorite at odds-on, but it was noticeable that he was not accorded the support that he was seemingly entitled to, while there was a few minutes before post time to back Homoselle and her odds were rapidly cut from 15 to 5 to 1. Homoselle led under sufferance and by a wide margin for the first mile and a half. Then she began to tire and Paprika and Judge White began moving up rapidly. At the second to the last jump both of these horses fell and Homoselle cantered Judge White was remounted by Dupee and finished second. Paprika could have won the race as easily as breaking sticks had he not fallen. I may have been that the slippery condition of the field had much to do with his poor fencing, but there were many who questioned the integrity of the running.

Sanguine, the favorite in the last race, led all th way and finished first, but was disqualified for fouling and the race was given to Wave Crest, second money to King Folly and third to Martha Jane Sanguine swerved all over the course in the last quarter of a mile.

Keator and Lancastrian, favorites for the first and fourth races, won, the former after a drive and the latter easily.

Jockey Radtke's absence from the saddle today was due to a suspension of three days for disobe dience at the post Saturday.

Old timers say that the steeplechase was the poorest affair of its kind ever decided at Sheeps-Salvidere appeared the picture of health and was much admired in the paddock.

In going that he does not like, Dandelion's per formance was decidedly meritorious.

SANCTION IS AGAIN DENIED.

New York, September 2.-The stewards of the Jockey Club, acting on a reapplication from the Jamestown Jockey Club for a license for a race meeting, to be conducted in connection with the Jamestown Exposition celebration, Saturday decided by resolution that they cannot see their way to a change of opinion from the decision early in the year that they would not grant a license, for the proposed race meeting.

The action by the stewards on the original appli cation was taken in part, because of the fact that the Virginia law makes no provision for the conduct of race meetings under legal protection.

NEALON, BROWN COLT, 4, BY SAIN-SISTER JOSEPHINE, WITH W. DUGAN UP, Nealon's victory in the Twin City Handicap at Sheepshead Bay yesterday was his fourteenth out of sixty-two starts in three seasons and his net winnings foot up $52,350. As a two-year-old he won three races and $2,050; last year he took six races and $15,450 and to date this year he has won five races been five times second and three times third in twenty starts and has earned $34,850. Nealon was bree by Barney Schreiber at his Woodlands Stud in Missouri and was raced by his breeder until last winter, when C. E. Durnell bought a half interest in him on a valuation of $15,000, took him into his own stable and won a couple of overnight handicaps with him at Oakland before shipping him to New York. Nealon made his first start in the east in Duraell's colors, when he finished second to Dandelion in a handicap at Belmont Park, May 13. Then he was third in the Brooklyn Handicap, third in the Cosmopolitan Handicap and second in an overnight handicap. Then he won the Suburban Handicap at Sheepshead Bay, running the mile and a quarter in 2:06%. In the race for the Brighton Mile he was interfered with at the start and finished unplaced and in the running for the Brighton Handicap he was crowded out of it and pulled up, finished in the ruck. At Saratoga, August 14, he won an overnight handicap for Durnell and two later was sold by public auction to William Dubols, owner of the Patchogue Stable, for $14,000. Dubols started him in the Saratoga Cup and he finished second to Running Water. That was his last start prior to yesterday and it may be said that he has already paid his way for his new owner.

MONTREAL FOLKS SEE RACES IN RAIN. OUSTED JOCKEYS SWEAR REVENGE.

Schroeder's Midway Wins the Champ de Mars Stakes-Exciting Contests.

Montreal, Quebec, September 2.—The racing con ditions at Blue Bonnets today could not possibly have been worse. About noon rain began to fall and for the remainder of the afternoon it came down in torrents, drenching everyone and everything not Under these circumstances it was expected that the attendance would be a mere handful, but the Montreal public showed that a little thing like rain will not keep them away from the races and they turned out in droves. The crowd was large enough to pack the grandstand, betting ring and clubhouse and, what was better, it was an enthusiastic gathering. They made themselves comfortable as possible and cheered the winners as they passed the stand. It made no difference whether the finishes were close or not. They were out for a holiday and enjoyed the sport.

Secretary Boden had prepared an excellent pro gram, which, however, was somewhat marred by scratches. The going was not as bad as might have been supposed and a majority of the races furnished stirring contests. Five of the winners were forced to stand hard drives to land the long end of the purses and the best horses won. racing was clean and form was very much in evi-

The Champ de Mars Stakes, which will be one of the annual features of Montreal racing, resulted in a head finish between Schroeder's Midway and The steeplechase proved an exciting contes with the winner in doubt until in the last fifty yards.

Several carloads of horses got in from New York and Fort Erie this morning. Among them were the stables of J. A. Sykes, M. J. Daly, T. E. Crist, W. Pangle, M. Burton and E. Manley. Jockeys E. Heider, Pohanka, J. Daly, Bullman, L. Smith and J. Simms also arrived. Lycurgus will be here the latter part of the week. His employer, W. Walker, received a message this afternoon that the boy was up and about again.

Knobhampton was ridden by Masnada, an Italian gentleman jockey, who is reputed to have been one of the leading turfmen in Italy a few years ago. fenced well and ran kindly had a royal chance until after taking the tenth when he struck a soft spot and in slipping went down behind and all but fell.

OFFICIALS FOR LEXINGTON MEETING.

Lexington, Ky., September 2.—Secretary W. R. Letcher, of the Kentucky Association, announces that at the fall meeting, which begins September 14, C. F. Price will be the presiding judge, Jake Holtman will do the starting, George Lindenberger will act as official timer, Will Shelly is to be clerk of scales, and John Walsh will act as paddock judge.

Merry-Go-Round Officials Guard Their Prop erty Against the "Union."

"Threats of a terrible revenge have been made to the officials of the Louisiana Driving and Racing the main spirits of the badly disfigured but still-in-the-ring Jockeys' Protective Union,' says the New Orleans Picayune. "'Windy' Ross D. Hall, Lindsey, Harris, Dalmete Bayliss, Fogg, Golden and J. (Speck) Dale, the jockeys placed un der the ban by the judges who refused to recognize or accede to all of the demands of the union, were hustled out of the inclosure when they sought to enter Saturday afternoon, and swore deep and long that they would get back at the Racing Club.

"Formed for the purpose of regulating scales against owners not inclined to pay for riding, the union was going to be an ideal beginning of a power ful organization of jockeys throughout the world who should be thus enabled to protect their sove reign rights as honest workingmen and enjoy the same privileges of other unionists who are useful 'Windy' Ross, a fairly good jockey and full of vague emotions on the subject, was the main promoter of the idea, and until Wednesday's clash with the powers that rule the annual track came, he was regarded as a hero among the powers that rule the affairs of the local henchmen. Many of the boys predicted, and still predict, a resurrection of the insurgent spirit among the jockeys and those suspended for their 'mis conduct and disrespect to the judges are steadily at work on the outside securing all the sympathiz ers possible. "The ringleaders believe that the 'manhood of the vonnger jockeys still remaining at work' at the track, will assert itself and they will yet regard the vows taken at the mystic hour of midnight in the place where the union was formed on Mystery street. However, it is now feared that they may take summary action to 'get even' with the racing promoters, and if this occurs the plant may crippled seriously and an enforced stop put to the racing now going on. It is said that the insurgent jockeys will make no attempt to get back into the good graces of the club, but will become mission-airies to spread the gospel of unionism to the four However, it is greatly feared that some stunt very damaging to their remaining 'reps' ma be pulled off before they embark on the novel tou Additional watchmen were last night placed around the valuable property and every effort will be made to keep it under strict surveillance, guarding against would-be raiders."

TRAINER ROWE WILL EARN $45,000.

James Rowe, trainer of James R. Keene's hor will earn approximately $45,000 this year. This will be the biggest sum ever paid a trainer one season's work. Rowe receives a salary of $10,000 a year and ten per cent of the gross earnings of

FORT ERIE MEETING ENDS

BAD WEATHER AND POOR TRANSPOR-TATION AFFECT ATTENDANCE.

Pinkola Is Backed as a Good Thing and Wins -Last Meeting Under the Parmer-Hendrie Regime.

Buffalo, N. Y., September 2.-With the running of the race this afternoon won by Excitement, came the end of the season at Fort Erie. Incidentally it also brought to a close Messrs. Parmer and Hendrie's control of the plant as lessees. Messrs. Cella, Condon, Stuart and Madigan, the new owners, will take charge on November 1 and will in future operate the plant under the name of the Niagara Jockey Club.

It had been the intention to prolong the sport at least during this week, but lack of facilities to transport the people to the course made it advisable to discontinue. Threatening weather caused a bigger shrinkage of patronage today that the racing deserved, as a good card was offered. Most of the contests were spirited, despite the sticky golug and the majority of favorites were returned winners. It was a jovial lot that made the homeward journey. All sorts of vehicles, from hay wagons to automobiles were pressed into use to convey passengers to the ferry to Buffalo.

The victory of Pinkola in the only allowance race during the afternoon, was achieved in a rather handy fashion and brought considerable profit to his owner, who backed him extensively away from

In the closing race Rebounder was supported with confidence that caused considerable comment. From an opening of 4 to 1, he was backed steadily until he shared favoritism with Excitement, but towards post time he receded slightly. He proved a false alarm, as after going the first quarter he never seriously menaced Excitement, which won in a com-

The third race, won by Toddles, came in for sharp criticism because of E. Martin's wretched ride of the favorite Bye Bye II. The youngster seem ingly made but slight effort to steer his mount to Keeping him behind Toddles throughout there never was a chance for him to pass the Goldblatt candidate, which won in handy style. There was some question as to whether Moreland, on the winner, had not impeded Bye Bye II., but the judges, after questioning Martin, felt satisfied that no foul had been committed and that Martin was chiefly to blame for the interference.

The protest made by Mose Goldblatt Saturday against the payment of the purse to Sally Preston's owners in the Fort Erie selling stakes was not sustained by the judges.

The strings of J. W. Pangle, M. Nicol and A. B. Stansbury will go to Montreal tomorrow. J. U. Strode, P. M. Civill, W. H. Frey, M. Goldblatt and A. Stelle will ship during the week to Lexington, Ky., where they will await the opening of the meeting there.

Jockey G. Swain departed last night for New York, where he will ride for James McLaughlin, Sr. The Pasadena Stable, owned by the Williams Brothers, will be shipped from here direct to Emeryville, Cal., and rested there until November.

SAME HALL, BUT SOME HEAVIER.

John W. Hall, trainer of Goldproof and other rses, stayed in New York to see the Futurity be fore leaving for Latonia, whence his horses had already been shipped.

"Say, I know your face, I believe," remarked a tall man, coming upon Hall as the Kentuckian vainly tried to see what the Futurity field was doing at the post; "but at that, it can't be."

"Can't be what?" asked Hall patiently. The stranger began to giggle confusedly.
"Let it go," he said finally. "The idea's too daffv." "Here, what ails you?" Hall eyed him threateningly. "Well, were you ever a jock, then?" demanded

Hall weighs 250 at present, and he'd harry an elephant considerably if he were chosen as mahout for the beast. "I sure was," he responded cheerily; "why?"

"Rode for Gene Leigh, 'bout ten or fifteen years ago?

Hall coyly admitted it.

"I'll be good, gol darned," exclaimed the ques-"If this ain't the limit. To think you tioner. was once a little bit of a guy. Don't seem pos-

As Hall's extensive back disappeared through the paddock gate this man followed, gazing at him

"Lord, how times do change," said he.

BUXTON TO RIDE FOR CAHILL.

New York, September 2.-Jockey Buxton, the diminutive lightweight who has been riding success at Seattle has been signed by William Cahill and is now on his way east. Scotty Ferguson, owner of the Fleur de Lis Stable, from whom Cahill secured Buxton's contract, is accompanying the lad on his journey. Buxton can ride at seventy-five pounds. Ferguson, it is understood, won heavily at Seattle and is coming east to pick up

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE DOLPHIN STAKES.

While not among the most important events of the Coney Island Jockey Club's autumn meeting, it has always been popular with owners and productive of good and well contested races. That it numbers such horses as Kingston, Belvidere, Ruperta, De Muth, Reclare, La Tosca, Ambulance, Homer, St. Leonards, Henry of Navarre, Dorian, Nanki Pooh, Floronso, Lady Massey, Killishandra, Water Color, Eugenia Burch, Beldame and Nealon in its list of winners and placed horses is good evidence of this. It was established in the early days of the club and will be run for the twenty-first time this afternoon. Its record is as follows:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE PARTRIDGE STAKES.

Strathmeath was the first winner of the Partridge Stakes and, by way of showing that it had fallen to a good horse, came out to Chicago the following year and won the American Derby. Other good ones that won this event were Harry Reed, distinguished as a crack sprinter in England and this country; One I Love, a very fine filly; Central Trust, a game and sturdy racer over any sort of track, and Gay Boy, speedy and a great weight carrier. Al₁ of the last four winners were good race horses, and Yankee Counsel, which unfortunately succumbed to disease, was justly accounted one of the best two-year-olds of his year. The record of the race is as follows:

| Year. First. | Year. Algorithment | Year. Second. | Year. Third. | Year. Time. | 1890 Strathment | Taral. 118 | Lord Harry | 119 | Lizzie | 115 | $1,235 | 1:15\frac{1}{2}$ | 1:16\frac{1}{2}$ | 1:16\fra

Lady Handsel rushed into prominence from a poor send-off and appeared a certain winner in the stretch, but tired near the end. Edma Motter ran fairly well and was prominent most of the way. Letohatchie had a rough trip. Fantasia tired. Alleen C. quit badly after going a half in the lead. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Lady Henrietta had no mishaps and did her best throughout. Dan McKenna came from a long way back after saving much ground when turning into the stretch. Toddles was sent into the lead on the first turn and, under vigorous riding, was kept hard at it and won a lucky victory. Bye Bye II., much the best, was ridden in a manner to bring about his certain defeat, was kept directly in the rear of Toddles to the upper turn, where he was shut off, went wide into the stretch and, when going gamely, was pulled up near the end. Winner—Ch. g, by Jonah White—Marguerite II. (trained by P. Gallagher).

Went to post at 4:48. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Edgely, much the best and favored by the going, showed the most speed and won all the way. Western gained steadily, although going wide, and ran fairly well. Tim Hurst came from far back in the stretch and finished gamely. St. Jeanne, after following the leader closely for the first half, tired badly and can do much better. Julia Gentzberger ran a bad race and was beaten off. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Winner—B. f. by John A. Morris—Linden Ella (trained by S. M. Marsh).

Went to post at 5:15. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won cantering; second and third driving. Linda Lake, away fast and clear of interference, spreadeagled the others and was never menaced. Drop Stitch had no mishaps and ran well throughout. Black Dress was turned sideways at the start, but ran a good race and would have been a sharp factor with a better rider up. Soirce was taken wide into the stretch, which eliminated her as a factor. Punctuality showed early speed and will improve. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

COLIN'S GOOD PADDOCK MANNERS.

Colin is always a gentleman in his paddock beha vior, as he is on the race track. After having been saddled for the Futurity he was led around in a circle between walls of enthusiastic admirers, but withal was as gentle and quiet as a workhorse might have been. The New York newspapers say he showed none of the nervousness nor unsteadiness of so many thoroughbreds, but seemed to take the admiration for him as his just due. He was a perfect picture of a race horse, typical of all the qualities that go to make up a horse of the best class. Barring the disfigurement of an enlarged which has decreased to a considerable extent since he began racing at Belmont Park, there was not a flaw that could be picked in the appearance of Colin.

On his return to the paddock the colt was in superb condition and there was no external evi-dences that he had had a hard race. He stood quietly while being cooled out and was led off to the stable without apparently having suffered in the least from his great struggle. Mr. Keene, who saw the running of the race from the clubhouse, congratulated over the success of Colin. That Mr. Keene considers Colin the best horse he has ever raced is pretty well assured.

"The interference which Colin met with at the start was not serious," said jockey Miller after the running of the Futurity Saturday, "but by it I got into a pocket from which there was no relief until we reached the bend. But when I found an opening and called on the colt, he came right along as he always does. He will do nothing more than you make him do, and I was rolling the whit at him all through the stretch, but did not use it. He is game, though, and had it been necessary use the whip he would have won in faster time. He is undoubtedly a great horse, and I doubt if ever I am privileged to throw a leg over a better

BALDWIN IS AT ARCADIA.

Los Angeles, Cal., September 2.—"Lucky" Baldwin has returned to his ranch from Lake Tahoe and is awaiting the arrival of George Rose, who is ex pected here in a day or two from the east. That there will be no racing at Ascot Park this winter and that a meeting will be opened at Arcadia Thanksgiving Day under the auspices of a new or ganization in which Baldwin, Rose and Barney Schreiber will be the chief stockholders, is gener ally understood and it is expected that details will be forthcoming within a week.

Bar None, which finished second to Colin in the Futurity, is a handsome, flashy looking horse very much the type of his sire, the $50,000 Nasturtium, and on his appearance would attract attention anywhere.
